Toronto, October 17, 1914..

President Falconer,

University of Toronto.

Dear Mr. President:

At a house meeting of the Residents at 85 St. George Street held on Thursday evening, October 15th, the following regulations were drawn up with regard to the admission of graduates to the Faculty Residence who are not members of the Staff. These regulations are hereby submitted to you for your consideration and we shall be glad to have your approval of the same if they are satisfactory to you.

Yours very truly,

Bennet Tupper
7.

ABF/JW

Secretary, House Committee.

Regulations whereby graduates, not members of the Staff, may be admitted to the Faculty Residence.

1. It is understood that the House is primarily for members of the Staff, and their applications must be accepted to the exclusion of any graduates who may be living in the House and who are not members of the Staff.
2. An opportunity must be given to the members of the House to meet any proposed graduate other than a member of the Staff before he is admitted to the House.
3. Such a graduate must be proposed by a member of the Staff in the House.
4. The question of such admission must be dealt with at a House meeting, of which at least two days notice must be given, and at which at least two-thirds of the members are present, or record their votes in absentia.
5. The ballot on admission shall be secret - three contrary votes excluding the nominee. No record is to be placed in the minutes of the rejection of a nominee.

B. Tapper, Esq.,
Secretary, House Committee,
86 St. George Street, Toronto.

Dear Mr. Tapper:

Will you announce to the House Committee of the Faculty Residence that the regulations which they have drawn up with regard to the admission of others than members of the staff meet with my approval ?

Yours sincerely,

President.

December 14th, 1914

Dear Mr. Tapper:

I am very glad to be able to write to you in terms of the highest commendation with regard to the work that you did with us while you were in the University of Toronto. As a teacher you gave us complete satisfaction, and we should have been glad to retain your services. As a man among other members of the staff you made many friends. Indeed, I have always heard you spoken of in the most kindly way..

I should be glad to be of any service I can at any time in enabling you to get a position as a teacher in a University or College.

With Kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mr. Bonno Tapper.
